

31 October—2 November 2008 Bankstown Sports Club, Sydney

Collect your registration pack on Thursday evening, get a free drink and enjoy the Club's facilities!

Delegates registering on Thursday evening will be given a voucher for a free drink redeemable from the Piano Bar at the Bankstown Sports Club on the night plus a discounted dinner voucher to enjoy a meal at the club at the same time.

Make a night of it, register Thursday and join colleagues for a night of networking and fun, before the Conference starts!

You can utilise one of the five restaurants or many bars on offer throughout the Club, play the pokies or just generally relax and enjoy.

Our AGM will be held on Friday 31 October following the conference sessions. The AGM is a short meeting, but nevertheless provides an excellent opportunity for you to meet your Committee and to have your say about the future of APDT.

Immediately after the AGM there will be a get-together in the Piano Bar. Join your fellow members for a pre-dinner drink and enjoy the opportunity to socialise with old friends and new!

Contact On Q by phone (02) 6288 3998 or email if you wish to discuss your attendance or need assistance with your arrangements.

Keynote Profile — Jennifer Messer DVM

Jennifer Messer is a veterinarian working in small animal practice in Ontario, Canada. In addition to routine clinical medicine, Jennifer conducts private canine behaviour consultations and has designed and implemented an in-clinic puppy parenting program to educate dog-owning clients about puppy behaviour and training. During her years as a veterinary student, she established and operated Montessaurus Puppy School where she now serves as the curriculum consultant.

Dr. Dunbar highly recommended Jennifer's puppy class philosophy and curriculum as being among "the best there is" and her presentations at the USA APDT in 2007 were extremely well received. Jennifer is acknowledged as a leader in curriculum development for young puppies, and her comprehensive puppy class program The Kinderpuppy Course – A Curriculum Manual for Instructors, published by PavSki, is being used by puppy class instructors worldwide.
